JEFF TUCKER TO PERFORM DAILY AT BOAT SHOW

MICHIGAN CITY, IN --- “Oh Condoleezza” and “Going Home to Graceland” will ring out when singer-songwriter Jeff Tucker takes the stage at this year’s Progressive Chicagoland In-Water Boat Show, August 11-14.

Tucker is the latest addition to the variety of features being included in the biggest in-water boat show held on Lake Michigan. Thousands of boat lovers from Illinois, Indiana and Michigan converge on the 4-day event each year.

With a resume of more than 3000 performances across the country, Tucker sings and plays family-friendly music that includes lots of other popular songs mixing elements of rock, pop and country. But his popularity stems as much from his unique ability to associate with his audiences as from his music. It makes him a natural pick to be featured at this year’s boat show. He’ll be on stage for multiple shows daily.

“Having talent like Jeff entertain is just one piece in our plan to have this show be a mid-summer boating celebration,” says Bryan Ralston, show manager. “It will be a family-oriented event with something for everyone, ranging from a first-ever kid’s activity area and performances by Twiggy the Water Skiing Squirrel to all-new food and beverage choices, among other features.”

From the show’s name, which reflects the large market it serves, to the entertainment features, this year’s show is being rebranded. The boating rendezvous atmosphere will complement the fleet of more than 100 new and select pre-owned boats, including inflatables, pontoons, ski boats, fishing machines and cruisers up to 60-foot-plus motor yachts.

The boat show is held in Michigan City’s Washington Park. Show hours will be: Thursday and Friday (8/11 & 8/12) Noon to 8 pm; Saturday (8/13) 11:00 am – 8:00 pm; and Sunday (8/14) 11:00 am to 6:00 pm. Admission: $12 adults, children 12 & under free. A $2 discount is offered for online ticket purchases. Go to: www.michigancityboatshow.com
